

General Conference

39th session, Paris, 2017

39 C

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

Organisation
des Nations Unies
pour l'éducation,
la science et la culture

Organización
de las Naciones Unidas
para la Educación,
la Ciencia y la Cultura

Организация
Объединенных Наций по
вопросам образования,
науки и культуры

منظمة الأمم المتحدة
للتربية والعلم والثقافة

联合国教育、
科学及文化组织

Item 6.1 of the provisional agenda

39 C/21

26 October 2017

Original: English

PROGRESS REPORT ON THE PREPARATION OF THE DRAFT GLOBAL CONVENTION ON THE RECOGNITION OF HIGHER EDUCATION QUALIFICATIONS

OUTLINE

Background: Pursuant to 38 C/Resolution 12 and in accordance with the Rules of Procedure concerning recommendations to Member States and international conventions covered by the terms of Article IV, paragraph 4 of the Constitution, the Director-General submits a progress report, accompanied by a preliminary draft of the convention on the recognition of higher education qualifications, to the 39th session of the General Conference for consideration and decision on further action.

Purpose: This document contains the progress report, accompanied by a preliminary draft of the global convention on the recognition of higher education qualifications, and the comments of the Executive Board thereon (202 EX/Decision 8).

Decision required: Paragraph 10.

Job: 201702606

BACKGROUND

1. The General Conference, at its 37th session, examined the preliminary study on the technical and legal aspects relating to the desirability of a global standard-setting instrument on the recognition of higher education qualifications and the comments and observations of the Executive Board thereon. By 37 C/Resolution 15, the General Conference recognized the benefits of a global convention on the recognition of higher education qualifications (“Global Convention”) and invited the Director-General to initiate the process of elaborating it.
2. Subsequently, at its 38th session, the General Conference adopted 38 C/Resolution 12, inviting the Director-General to continue the process of elaborating a Global Convention and to submit a progress report, at its 39th session, accompanied by a preliminary draft of the Global Convention, for consideration and decision on further action. The complete progress report is contained in Annex I (202 EX/8).
3. Pursuant to 38 C/Resolution 12, UNESCO established, in March 2016, in close cooperation with UNESCO Electoral Groups, a Drafting Committee (Category VI) to elaborate a preliminary draft of the Global Convention. It was composed of 23 independent experts, appointed on a geographical balance basis from all UNESCO regions, and convened four times. The Drafting Committee’s concluding meeting (June 2017) resulted in the preliminary draft of the Global Convention, presented in Annex II of document 202 EX/8.
4. A first round of consultations with Member States was conducted online from May to June 2017. The purpose of this was to provide the Drafting Committee with initial feedback on whether the text was moving in the right direction and fulfilling expectations. Forty Member States responded, generally providing positive feedback, which was incorporated into the preliminary draft during the Drafting Committee’s concluding meeting (June 2017). UNESCO also organized information meetings for all Member States, by Electoral Groups, between July and September 2017 to provide further clarifications on the preparation process. A tentative timeline for the adoption of the Global Convention is presented in Annex I of document 202 EX/8, with a view to its adoption at the 40th session of the General Conference.

COMMENTS OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

5. Upon examining the progress report (202 EX/8), several Member States expressed their support for the initiative of developing a Global Convention and welcomed the way forward proposed. The Executive Board highlighted the importance of consultations with Member States as well as the necessity of ensuring that the new normative framework is flexible and takes into account the diversity of national systems.
6. Some Members of the Executive Board expressed concern over including a provision on refugees in the draft Global Convention and on UNESCO’s human resource capacity to implement it together with the revised regional recognition conventions. Further clarifications on the relationship between the draft Global Convention and regional recognition conventions were also requested, particularly as regards the two regional conventions yet to be revised – 1974 Regional Convention on the Recognition of Studies, Diplomas and Degrees in Higher Education in Latin America and the Caribbean (“1974 LAC Convention”) and 1978 Convention on the Recognition of Studies, Diplomas and Degrees in Higher Education in the Arab States (“1978 Arab States Convention”).
7. By 202 EX/Decision 8 (Annex II), the Executive Board recommended to the 39th session of the General Conference to invite the Director-General to continue the process of elaborating a Global Convention, and to submit to it, at its 40th session, the final progress report and draft text of the Global Convention, for adoption.

COMMENTS OF THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL

8. Pursuant to 38 C/Resolution 12, and in conformity with article 10, paragraph 1, of the Rules of Procedure concerning recommendations to Member States and international conventions covered by the terms of Article IV, paragraph 4, of the Constitution, the Director-General plans to organize a series of consultations with Member States and relevant stakeholders on the draft text of the Global Convention, as presented in the tentative timeline in Annex I of document 202 EX/8. Based on their comments and observations, the Director-General will prepare a final report and text of the Global Convention and convene a Special Committee for its review thereafter. A first meeting of the Special Committee is foreseen at the end of 2018, and possibly a second meeting in 2019.

9. The draft Global Convention builds on the existing regional recognition conventions, and the Drafting Committee has worked to ensure that there are no contradictions between the two. As there are differences in higher education systems specific to different regions, the regional recognition conventions still remain relevant for the needs of each region. They will continue to be binding at regional level and implemented in synergy with the Global Convention, with no normative hierarchy presupposed. Concerning the timeline for the preparation of two regional recognition conventions yet to be revised, these processes have been developed in parallel with that of the Global Convention. There is momentum to revise the “1978 Arab States Convention” before the 40th session of the General Conference, and the revised “1974 LAC Convention” is foreseen to be adopted in the 2018-2019 biennium (document 39 C/48).

PROPOSED RESOLUTION

10. In light of the foregoing, the General Conference may wish to adopt the following resolution:

The General Conference,

Recalling 37 C/Resolution 15 and 38 C/Resolution 12,

Further recalling 197 EX/Decision 8 and 202 EX/Decision 8,

Taking note of the broad support expressed by Member States, experts and other stakeholders for the development of a global convention on the recognition of higher education qualifications,

Having examined with appreciation document 39 C/21, which presents the progress report, accompanied by a preliminary draft of the global convention on the recognition of higher education qualifications, and the comments and observations of the Executive Board thereon,

1. Reaffirms that a global convention will improve academic mobility, enhance international cooperation in higher education, and will represent a significant step forward towards global academic mobility and trust in higher education systems;
2. Acknowledges the progress made regarding the revision of regional recognition conventions in all regions;
3. Stresses that the global convention should build upon and complement the existing regional recognition conventions;
4. Invites the Director-General to continue the process of elaborating the global convention, and to consult Member States and relevant stakeholders on the preliminary draft in an inclusive manner through consultations;

5. Encourages Member States to provide financial resources to facilitate the consultation and preparation process of the draft, to ensure a satisfactory participation of all Member States and relevant stakeholders;
6. Invites the Director-General to submit to it, at its 40th session, the final progress report and draft text of the global convention on the recognition of higher education qualifications, for adoption.

ANNEX I

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

Executive Board

Two hundred and second session

202 EX/8

PARIS, 8 August 2017
Original: English

Item 8 of the provisional agenda

PROGRESS REPORT ON THE PREPARATION OF
THE DRAFT GLOBAL CONVENTION ON THE RECOGNITION OF HIGHER EDUCATION QUALIFICATIONS

SUMMARY

Pursuant to 38 C/Resolution 12, the Director-General presents a progress report, accompanied by a preliminary draft of the Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications to the 202nd session of the Executive Board for its examination and transmission to the 39th session of the General Conference.

The financial and administrative implications of this document have been covered in document 38 C/5 and are additionally foreseen in draft document 39 C/5.

Action expected of the Executive Board: Proposed decision in paragraph 12.

I. INTRODUCTION

1. As the only United Nations agency with a mandate in higher education, UNESCO supports Member States in the field of the recognition of studies, diplomas and degrees in higher education with a view to promoting the right to education, academic mobility and strengthening international understanding. For this purpose, in the 1970s and 1980s, UNESCO facilitated the development of six normative instruments for regulating recognition at the regional level, covering the following geographical zones: Latin America and the Caribbean (1974); Arab and European States bordering on the Mediterranean (1976); Arab States (1978); Europe (1979); Africa (1981); and Asia and the Pacific (1983).

2. Since then, taking into account the transformations in higher education systems, policies and environments, the review of these regional conventions has been carried out. To date, three have been revised, including the 1979 Convention on the Recognition of Studies, Diplomas and Degrees concerning Higher Education in the States Belonging to the European Region in 1997; the 1983 Regional Convention on the Recognition of Studies, Diplomas and Degrees in Higher Education in Asia and the Pacific in 2011; and the 1981 Regional Convention on the Recognition of Studies, Certificates, Diplomas, Degrees and Other Academic Qualifications in Higher Education in African States in 2014. A process has been initiated for the revision of the 1974 Regional Convention on the Recognition of Studies, Diplomas and Degrees in Higher Education in Latin America and the Caribbean and there is momentum in the Arab States Region to revise the Convention on the Recognition of Studies, Diplomas and Degrees in Higher Education in the Arab States, adopted in 1978.

3. The number of students choosing to study abroad in a country outside of their region, together with the internationalization of quality assurance and higher education, have increasingly become a policy objective for governments. In addition to the revision process for the regional conventions, these trends emphasize the need for creating a global normative instrument which can secure cross-border recognition of qualifications in a fair, transparent and non-discriminatory manner. A Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications would facilitate the recognition of qualifications for 2.5 million students studying outside their home region today, and this number is expected to grow in the years to come.

4. At its 37th session (November 2013), the General Conference adopted 37 C/Resolution 15, recognizing the benefits of a Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications, and inviting the Director-General to initiate the process of elaborating a draft text. Subsequently, at its 38th session (November 2015), the General Conference adopted 38 C/Resolution 12, inviting the Director-General to continue the process of elaborating a Global Convention and to submit a progress report at its 39th session, accompanied by a preliminary draft of the Global Convention, for consideration and decision on further action. This document is presented pursuant to 38 C/Resolution 12.

II. THE PREPARATION OF THE PRELIMINARY DRAFT OF THE GLOBAL CONVENTION

5. In line with 38 C/Resolution 12 (November 2015), UNESCO established in March 2016, in close cooperation with UNESCO Electoral Groups, a Drafting Committee (Category VI) to elaborate a preliminary draft of the Global Convention. It was composed of 23 ad-hoc experts with outstanding backgrounds and experience in recognition and higher education, who were appointed on a geographic balance basis from all UNESCO regions. The members worked in their private capacity through an online platform (UNESTeam) and four face-to-face meetings, three of which took place at UNESCO Headquarters in Paris (May 2016, February and June 2017) and one in Rome in cooperation with the Holy See (September 2016). UNESCO served as the Secretariat of the Drafting Committee.

6. A first round of consultations with Member States was initiated through an online survey sent to the Permanent Delegations and National Commissions for UNESCO by the Director-General in May 2017. The survey, comprising eight statements relating to the seven sections of the preliminary draft of the Global Convention, invited Member States to provide their opinions, suggestions or amendments on the text. Overall, 40 Member States responded, generally providing positive feedback. Following this first round, the concluding meeting of the Drafting Committee took place at UNESCO Headquarters at the end of June 2017 to analyse the responses received from Member States and finalize the preliminary draft of the Global Convention, as presented in the Annex.

III. AIMS AND ADDED VALUE OF A GLOBAL CONVENTION

7. The future Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications will be implemented in coordination with the regional conventions. It will be built upon and carried out in synergy with the principles of the existing regional conventions and the 1993 Recommendation on the Recognition of Studies and Qualifications in Higher Education. The regional conventions will continue to be legally binding at the regional level and fulfil the specificities of each region in the field of recognition. No normative hierarchy between these conventions intends to be presupposed.

8. The main aim of adopting a Global Convention is to establish an international normative instrument on recognition with global scope. The convention will be open to ratification by all Member States from the six UNESCO regions. As with the regional conventions, Parties to the future Global Convention will not be bound to pursue automatic recognition of higher education qualifications issued by another Party.

9. The future Global Convention aims to strengthen inter-regional academic mobility; promote increased international cooperation in higher education; promote democratization of higher education and lifelong learning opportunities for all; provide a framework of quality assurance for the fast-growing diversity of higher education providers; and develop agreed principles for recognition of on higher education qualifications common to all regions. It will seek to cover practices for the recognition of qualifications in higher education awarded by a diverse range of providers as well as define terms such as higher education and types of recognition enhancing inter-regional mobility.

IV. WAY FORWARD

10. Pursuant to 38C/Resolution 12, and in conformity with article 10, paragraph 1 of UNESCO's Rules of Procedure concerning recommendations to Member States and international conventions covered by the terms of Article IV, paragraph 4, of the Constitution, the Secretariat plans to organize a series of consultations with Member States and relevant stakeholders on the draft text of the Global Convention, as presented in Annex II. Based on their comments and observations, the Director-General will prepare a final report and text of the Global Convention and convene a Special Committee for its review thereafter. It is foreseen that the Global Convention be adopted by the 40th session of the General Conference. The procedures for adoption will be in accordance with the abovementioned Rules of Procedure. A tentative timeline for the adoption of the Global Convention is presented in the Annex.

11. Higher education has been recognized as an integral part of Sustainable Development Goal 4. In the draft 39 C/5, an expected result of Major Programme I is dedicated to the provision of higher quality education (contributing to SDG target 4.3) particularly as regards improved recognition of and access to equitable and quality assured higher education provision. Advancing the formulation of a Global Convention on the recognition of higher education qualifications is envisaged to reinforce the priority area of international mobility of learning, learners and qualifications.

Proposed decision

12. In the light of the above, the Executive Board may wish to take the following decision:

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 37 C/Resolution 15, 197 EX/8 and 38 C/Resolution 12,
2. Having examined 202 EX/8 and its annexes,
3. Takes note with appreciation of the Director-General's progress report, accompanied by a preliminary draft of the Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications, and transmits it to the General Conference at its 39th session;
4. Recommends to the 39th session of the General Conference to invite the Director-General to continue the process of elaborating a Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications, and to consult Member States and relevant stakeholders on the preliminary draft in an inclusive manner through consultations,
5. Also recommends to the General Conference to invite the Director-General to submit to it at its 40th session the final progress report and draft text of the Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications, for adoption.

ANNEX I

TENTATIVE TIMELINE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE GLOBAL CONVENTION ON THE RECOGNITION OF HIGHER EDUCATION
QUALIFICATIONS

November 2017	January-July 2018	October/ November 2018	December 2018	January/February 2019	November 2019
Decision by the 39th session of the General Conference on further action	Consultations with Member States and relevant stakeholders on the progress report and the preliminary draft of the Global Convention	Final progress report (containing the draft text of the Global Convention) prepared by the Director-General based on the comments and observations of the Member States, for examination by the Special Committee	Examination of the draft text of the Global Convention by a Special Committee	Submission of the draft text of the Global Convention by the Special Committee to Member States, with a view to its discussion and adoption at the 40th General Conference	The final progress report and draft text of the Global Convention are presented to the 40th General Conference for decision/adoption

ANNEX II

UNESCO Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications

[Preliminary Draft Text: 7 July 2017]

PREAMBLE

The Parties to this Convention:

Guided by a common will to strengthen the geographical, cultural, educational and economic ties between Parties and between regions;

Recalling the Constitution of UNESCO, “to contribute to peace and security by promoting collaboration among the nations through education, science, and culture”;

Mindful of the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations of 1945; the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights of 1948; the United Nations International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights of 1966; the United Nations Convention relating to the Status of Refugees of 1951; the UNESCO Recommendation on the Status of Scientific Researchers of 1974; the UNESCO Recommendation on the Recognition of Studies and Qualifications in Higher Education of 1993; the UNESCO Recommendation concerning the Status of Higher-Education Teaching Personnel of 1997; and the UNESCO Convention on Technical and Vocational Education of 1989;

Mindful of the UNESCO Convention against Discrimination in Education of 1960, Article 4a committing Member States to “make higher education equally accessible to all”;

Building on the UNESCO Regional Conventions on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications;

Reaffirming their responsibility to promote inclusive education, equitable quality of higher education and lifelong learning opportunities for all;

Conscious of the increasingly inter-regional mobility of students, researchers and academics and the increasingly inter-regional cooperation in higher education and research;

Cognisant of the different modes, developments and innovations in teaching and learning in higher education;

Considering higher education as a public good, provided by public and private institutions, and aware of the need to uphold and protect the principles of academic freedom and autonomy of higher education institutions;

Convinced that the inter-regional recognition of qualifications in higher education will facilitate knowledge circulation via international mobility of learners and learning, researchers, research and labour;

Respecting the cultural diversity, differences in education traditions and values of national and sub-national structures of higher education;

Desirous of the need for a Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications to complement the UNESCO Regional Recognition Conventions on Higher Education Qualifications and to enhance the cohesion between them;

Convinced that this Convention will promote inter-regional articulation of procedures for recognition and quality assurance at a global level,

Have agreed as follows:

SECTION I. DEFINITION OF TERMS

Article I.

For the purpose of this Convention, the following terms shall apply:

Access (to higher education): the opportunity provided to an individual holding an appropriate qualification to apply and to be considered for admission to higher education;

Admission (to higher education institutions and programmes): the act of, or system for, allowing holders of qualifications to pursue studies in higher education at a given institution and/or a given programme;

Applicant: an individual or a legal person submitting a qualification for assessment to the competent recognition authority for the purpose of recognition;

Assessment: the written evaluation of an applicant's qualifications, of partial studies, or of prior learning by a competent authority;

Competent authority: an individual or organisation that has the legally delegated or invested authority, capacity, or power to perform a designated function;

Competent recognition authority: a body officially charged with making decisions on the recognition of qualifications;

Components of a Party to the Convention: public entities at the national, provincial, federal or regional level;

Displaced person: an individual forced to move from their locality or environment and occupational activities either inside or outside their country of residence;

Formal learning: a learning period that derives from activities within a structured learning setting provided by an education institution authorised to deliver such learning activities;

General requirements: conditions that must in all cases be fulfilled for access to higher education, or to a given level thereof, or for the award of a higher education qualification at a given level;

Higher education: all types of study programmes, training or training for research at the post-secondary level which are recognised by the competent authorities of a Party as belonging to its higher education system;

Higher education institution: an establishment providing higher education and recognised by the competent authority of a Party as belonging to its system of higher education;

Higher education programme: a post-secondary course of study recognised by the competent authority of a Party as belonging to its higher education system, the completion of which provides the student with a higher education qualification;

Informal learning: learning resulting from daily life activities related to work, family or leisure or other informal activities;

Learning outcomes: statements of what a learner is expected to know, understand and be able to demonstrate upon completion of a learning process;

Lifelong learning: all learning activity through formal, non-formal or informal studies covering the entire life span with the aim of improving knowledge, skills and competence;

Mobility: the movement of individuals outside their own country to study, research, teach or work;

Non-formal learning: learning achieved within the framework of an education or training institution not belonging to a formal education system;

Non-traditional learning modes: Mechanisms for the delivery of educational programmes and learning activities not essentially relying on face-to-face interaction between the instructor and the learner;

Partial studies: any homogeneous part of a higher education programme which has been evaluated and, while not a complete programme in itself, represents a significant acquisition of knowledge, skills, and competence;

Prior learning: the knowledge, skills and competence an individual has acquired as a result of formal, informal or non-formal learning, assessed against a given set of learning outcomes or standards;

Qualification:

(a) Higher education qualification: any degree, diploma or other certificate issued by a competent authority attesting to the successful completion of a higher education programme;

(b) Qualification giving access to higher education: any degree, diploma or other certificate issued by a competent authority attesting to the successful completion of an education programme and giving the holder of the qualification the right to be considered for admission to higher education;

Qualifications framework: a system for classification, publication and articulation of quality assured qualifications according to a set of criteria;

Quality assurance: a process by which the quality of a higher education system, institution or programme is assessed to assure stakeholders that acceptable standards are being maintained and enhanced;

Recognition: a formal acknowledgment by a competent authority of the value of a foreign education qualification or of partial studies or of prior learning;

Region: a region as defined by UNESCO classification comprising the following: Africa, Arab States, Asia and the Pacific, Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean;

Regional Recognition Conventions: UNESCO conventions on the recognition of higher education qualifications in each of the UNESCO regions, including their revised versions; and Specific requirements (for admission to higher education): conditions that must be fulfilled, in addition to the general requirements, in order to gain admission to a particular higher education programme, or for the award of a specific higher education qualification in a particular field of study.

SECTION II. AIMS OF THE CONVENTION

Article II

Building on and enhancing the coordination, revisions and achievements of the Regional Recognition Conventions, the aims of this Convention are to:

1. Promote and strengthen international cooperation in higher education.
2. Facilitate global mobility for the mutual benefit of societies, qualification holders, higher education institutions, employers and other relevant stakeholders of Parties to the Convention.
3. Provide a global framework for the fair, non-discriminatory, transparent, consistent, coherent and reliable recognition of higher education qualifications.
4. Foster trust and confidence in the quality and integrity of qualifications, including through encouraging ethical practices in higher education.
5. Promote and build capacities for reliability and complementarity in quality assurance, qualifications frameworks and the recognition of qualifications to support inter-regional mobility.
6. Support inter-regional developments, policies and innovations for international cooperation in higher education.
7. Promote the development and sharing of accessible, updated, reliable, transparent and relevant information between stakeholders, Parties and regions.
8. Reduce barriers to mobility by understanding and respecting the diversity of education systems globally.
9. Promote, through the recognition of qualifications, inclusive and equitable access to quality higher education and support learning opportunities for all.
10. Foster a better use of human and educational resources globally in view of promoting structural, economic, technological and social development.

SECTION III. BASIC PRINCIPLES FOR THE RECOGNITION OF HIGHER EDUCATION QUALIFICATIONS

Article III

This Convention establishes the following principles for the recognition of higher education qualifications:

1. Individuals have the right to have their qualifications assessed for the purposes of applying for admission to further study or pursuing employment opportunities in another country;
2. Recognition of qualifications is undertaken objectively in a transparent, fair and non-discriminatory manner at all levels in accordance with established rules and regulations of each Party;
3. Recognition decisions based on clear criteria and procedures underline the fundamental importance of equitable access to higher education and employment opportunities;

4. Recognition decisions are based on reliable, accessible and updated information on higher education systems, institutions and programmes provided through established national information centres or similar structures;
5. Recognition decisions are made with due respect to the cultural, social, political, philosophical, religious, and economic diversity of higher education systems worldwide;
6. Entities undertaking recognition assessments, including but not limited to, national or subnational competent authorities and higher education institutions, do so in good faith;
7. Applicants seeking recognition of their qualifications do so in good faith, and have the right to appeal.

SECTION IV. OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES TO THE CONVENTION

Article IV.

Recognition of Qualifications Giving Access to Higher Education

1. Each Party shall recognise the qualifications giving access to higher education issued by other Parties meeting the general requirements for access to higher education in those Parties for the purpose of access to programmes belonging to its higher education system, unless a substantial difference can be shown between the general requirements for access in the Party in which the qualification was obtained and in the Party in which recognition of the qualification is sought.
2. Alternatively, it shall be sufficient for a Party to enable the holder of a qualification issued in another Party to obtain an assessment of that qualification, upon request by the holder, and the provisions of Article IV.1 shall apply mutatis mutandis to such a case.
3. Education programmes delivered by non-traditional learning modes that are subject to the same or comparable quality assurance mechanisms of a Party, and where the resulting qualification gives access to the higher education system of that Party, shall be assessed using the same criteria as a similar qualification delivered by traditional learning modes.
4. Where a qualification gives access only to specific types of institutions or programmes of higher education in the Party in which the qualification was obtained, each other Party shall grant holders of such qualifications access to similar specific types of institutions or programmes belonging to its higher education system, unless a substantial difference can be shown between the requirements for access in the Party in which the qualification was obtained and the Party in which recognition of the qualification is sought.

Article V.

Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications

1. Each Party shall recognise the higher education qualification conferred in another Party, unless a substantial difference can be shown between the qualification or learning outcomes (where applicable) for which recognition is sought and the corresponding qualification in the Party in which recognition is sought.
2. Alternatively, it shall be sufficient for a Party to enable the holder of a higher education qualification issued in another Party to obtain an assessment of that qualification, upon request by the holder, and the provisions of Article V.1 shall apply mutatis mutandis to such a case.

3. Higher education programmes delivered by non-traditional learning modes that are subject to the same or comparable quality assurance mechanisms of a Party, and that are considered a part of the higher education system of a Party, shall be assessed using the same criteria as a similar qualification delivered by traditional learning modes.
4. Recognition in a Party of a higher education qualification issued in another Party shall have one or both of the following outcomes:
 - (a) Provide an individual the right to apply for admission to further higher education studies, on the same conditions as those applicable to holders of qualifications of the Party in which recognition is sought;
 - (b) Entitle an individual to the use of an academic title, subject to the laws and regulations of the Party or a jurisdiction thereof, in which recognition is sought.

In addition, recognition may facilitate access to the labour market subject to the laws and regulations of the Party, or a jurisdiction thereof, in which recognition is sought.

Article VI.

Recognition of Partial Studies

1. Each Party shall recognise, where appropriate, the learning outcomes achieved through partial studies within the framework of a higher education programme in another Party. This recognition shall consist of taking such partial studies into account for the purpose of the completion of a higher education programme in the Party where recognition is sought, unless substantial difference can be shown between the partial studies completed and the part of the higher education programme they would replace in the Party in which recognition is sought.
2. Alternatively, it shall be sufficient for a Party to enable a person who has undertaken partial studies within the framework of a higher education programme in another Party to obtain an assessment of these partial studies, upon request by the person concerned, and the provisions of Article VI.1 shall apply mutatis mutandis to such a case.
3. With respect to the partial completion of higher education programmes delivered by non-traditional learning modes that are subject to the same or comparable quality assurance mechanisms of a Party, and that are considered to be part of the higher education system of a Party, those studies shall be assessed using the same criteria as a similar qualification delivered by traditional learning modes.

Article VII.

Recognition of Partial Studies and Qualifications held by Refugees, Displaced Persons and Persons in a Refugee-Like Situation

Each Party shall take all necessary and feasible steps within the framework of its education system and in conformity with its constitutional, legal, and regulatory provisions to develop procedures designed to assess fairly and expeditiously whether refugees, displaced persons and persons in a refugee-like situation fulfill the relevant requirements for access to higher education, to further higher education programmes or to employment opportunities, including in cases where the partial studies or qualifications obtained in one of the Parties cannot be proven through documentary evidence.

Article VIII.

Information for Assessment and Recognition

1. Each Party shall establish transparent systems for the complete description of the qualifications and learning outcomes obtained in its territory.
2. Each Party shall put in place a robust and ethical system of approval, recognition and quality assurance of their higher educational institutions in order to promote confidence and trust in their higher education system.
3. Each Party shall establish or maintain a national information centre or similar structure and encourage the use of technology to facilitate access to relevant, accurate and up-to-date information about its higher education system.
4. In each Party, the national information centre or similar structure shall:
 - (a) Provide access to authoritative and accurate information on the higher education system and qualifications of the Party;
 - (b) Facilitate access to and the dissemination of information on the higher education systems and qualifications of the other Parties;
 - (c) Give advice and information on recognition matters, including criteria and procedures for the assessment of qualifications, and the development of materials for good recognition practices, in accordance with laws and regulations of the Party; and
 - (d) Ensure the provision of adequate information on any institution belonging to its higher education system, and on any programme operated by these institutions, with a view to enabling the competent authorities of other Parties to ascertain whether the quality of the qualifications issued by these institutions justifies recognition in the Party in which recognition is sought.

Article IX.

Assessment of an Application

1. Each Party shall ensure that the body undertaking assessment for the purposes of recognition demonstrates when an application does not fulfill the appropriate requirements or where substantial differences are identified.
2. Each Party shall ensure that institutions belonging to their education systems provide, upon request and within a reasonable timeframe, relevant information to the holder of qualifications or to the institution or the competent recognition authorities of the Party in which recognition is sought.

Article X.

Information on the Competent Recognition Authorities

1. Each Party shall provide the depository of this Convention with official notification of the authorities that are competent to make decisions in recognition matters in its territory.
2. Where central authorities of a Party are competent to make decisions in recognition, they shall immediately be bound by the provisions of this Convention and shall take measures necessary to ensure implementation of the provisions of this Convention in its territory.

3. Where the competence to make decisions in recognition matters lies with components of a Party, the Party shall furnish the depository with a brief statement of its constitutional situation or structure at the time of signature or when depositing its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval, or accession, and of any changes thereafter. In such cases, the competent recognition authorities of the components of the Party so designated shall take the necessary measures to ensure implementation of the provisions of this Convention within the Party's territory.
4. Where the competence to make decisions in recognition matters lies with individual higher education institutions or other entities, each Party according to its constitutional situation or structure, shall transmit the text of this Convention to these institutions or entities and shall take all necessary steps to encourage the favourable consideration and application of its provisions.
5. The provisions of paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 of this article shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the obligations of the Parties under this Convention.

Article XI.

Additional Requirements for Admission to Higher Education Programmes

1. Where admission to particular higher education programmes is dependent on the fulfillment of specific requirements in addition to the general requirements for access, the competent authorities of the Party concerned may impose the specific requirements equally on holders of qualifications obtained in other Parties or assess whether applicants with qualifications obtained in other Parties fulfill such equivalent requirements.
2. Where, in a Party in which they have been obtained, qualifications giving access to higher education are issued only in combination with additional qualifying examinations as a prerequisite for access, the other Parties may make access conditional on these requirements or offer an alternative for satisfying such additional requirements within their own education systems.
3. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article III, admission to a given higher education institution, or to a given programme within such an institution, may be restricted or selective.
4. With respect to paragraph 3 of this article, admission procedures should be designed with a view to ensuring that the assessment of foreign qualifications is carried out according to the principles of transparency, fairness and non-discrimination described in Article III.
5. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article III, admission to a given higher education institution may be based on the condition of demonstrated sufficient skills in the language or languages of instruction of the institution concerned, or in other specific languages.
6. For the purpose of admission to higher education programmes, each Party may recognize qualifications issued by foreign educational institutions operating in its territory contingent upon specific requirements of national legislation and regulation or specific agreements concluded with the Party of origin of such institutions.
7. Each Party may make the recognition of higher education qualifications issued by foreign educational institutions operating in its territory contingent upon specific requirements of national legislation and regulations of the Party, a jurisdiction thereof, or specific agreements concluded with the Party of origin of such institutions.

SECTION V. IMPLEMENTATION STRUCTURES AND COOPERATION

Article XII.

Implementation Structures

The Parties agree to implement the present Convention through, or in cooperation with:

1. National implementation structures;
2. Networks of national implementation structures;
3. The Global Recognition Committee.

Article XIII.

National Implementation Structures

1. In order to facilitate the recognition of higher education qualifications, the Parties undertake to implement this Convention through relevant organisations including national information centres or similar structures.
2. Each Party will notify the Secretariat of the Global Recognition Committee about their national implementation structures and of any modification in this regard.
3. National implementation structures may form networks.

Article XIV.

Networks of National Implementation Structures

1. The Networks may be composed of national implementation structures of the Parties.
2. The Networks may provide information exchange, capacity building and technical support to the Parties upon request.
3. The Networks seek to strengthen the inter-regional co-operation under this Convention and uphold links to the Global Recognition Committee.
4. Parties may participate in existing regional networks established through the Regional Recognition Conventions or create their own networks. Participation in existing regional networks is subject to the agreement of the relevant Regional Recognition Convention Committees.

Article XV.

The Global Recognition Committee

1. A Global Recognition Committee, hereinafter referred to as “the Committee”, shall be established.
2. The Committee shall be composed of representatives of the Parties to the Convention.
3. The States that are not Parties to this Convention, and the Heads of the Regional Recognition Conventions Committees may participate in the meetings of the Committee as observers.

4. Representatives of relevant international organisations as well as representatives of governmental and non-governmental organizations active in the field of recognition may also be invited to attend meetings of The Committee as observers.
5. The Committee shall meet in ordinary session at least every two years. The Committee shall have an interim work programme concerning activities between sessions. The Committee shall submit a report at each of the ordinary sessions of the General Conference of UNESCO.
6. The Committee shall meet for the first time within two years of the entry into force of this Convention and shall adopt its Rules of Procedure.
7. The Committee shall promote the application of this Convention and shall oversee its implementation. To this end, it may adopt recommendations, declarations, and models of good practice to guide the competent authorities of the Parties in their implementation of this Convention. Such texts should have a global or as a minimum inter-regional importance and relevance. While they shall not be bound by such texts, the Parties shall use their best endeavours to bring the texts to the attention of the competent authorities and to encourage their application.
8. The Committee may adopt operational guidelines to the Parties to this Convention, in consultation with Regional Recognition Conventions Committees.
9. The Committee shall decide on the monitoring and reporting activities concerning the implementation of the Convention.
10. The Committee shall maintain links with the Regional Recognition Conventions Committees..
11. The Committee shall assure that there is the necessary information exchange between the Committee and the Regional Recognition Conventions Committees.
12. The Committee shall examine for adoption the draft amendments to this Convention as described in Article XXIII.
13. The Secretariat of the Committee shall be provided by the Director-General of UNESCO. The Secretariat shall prepare the documentation of the Committee, as well as the draft agenda of its meetings, and shall ensure the implementation of its decisions.

SECTION VI. FINAL CLAUSES

Article XVI.

Ratification, Acceptance, Approval or Accession by Member States

1. This Convention shall be subject to ratification, acceptance, approval or accession by Member States of UNESCO and the Holy See in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures.
2. The instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession shall be deposited with the Director-General of UNESCO.

Article XVII.

Accession

1. This Convention shall be open to accession by all States not Members of UNESCO but which are members of the United Nations, or of any of its specialized agencies, that are invited by the General Conference of UNESCO to accede to it.
2. This Convention shall also be open to accession by territories which enjoy full internal self-government recognized as such by the United Nations, but which have not attained full independence in accordance with General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV), and which have competence over the matters governed by this Convention, including the competence to enter into treaties in respect of such matters.
3. The instrument of accession shall be deposited with the Director-General of UNESCO.

Article XVIII

Entry into Force

1. This Convention shall enter into force three months after the date of deposit of the twentieth instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, but only with respect to those that have deposited their respective instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval, or accession on or before that date.
2. This Convention shall enter into force with respect to any other Party three months after the deposit of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession.

Article XIX.

Relationship of the Parties to the Convention and Parties to the Regional Recognition Conventions and other Treaties

1. The ratification, acceptance, approval or accession of any of the Regional Recognition Conventions shall not be a prerequisite for the ratification, acceptance, approval or accession of this Convention.
2. Parties to this Convention shall,
 - (a) foster mutual supportiveness between this Convention and the other treaties to which they are parties, particularly the Regional Recognition Conventions; and
 - (b) take into account the relevant provisions of this Convention when interpreting and applying the Regional Recognition Conventions to which they are parties or when entering into other international obligations.
3. Nothing in this Convention shall be interpreted as modifying rights and obligations of the Parties under the Regional Recognition Conventions and any other treaties to which they are parties.
4. To ensure a coherent interaction between this Convention, the Regional Recognition Conventions, any other relevant bilateral or multilateral agreements, and any other existing or future treaty or convention to which a Party to this Convention may be or may become a party, nothing in this Convention shall be deemed to derogate from any provisions more favourable to recognition.

Article XX.

Federal or Non-Unitary Constitutional Systems

Recognizing that international agreements are equally binding on Parties regardless of their constitutional systems, the following provisions shall apply to Parties which have a federal or non-unitary constitutional system:

- (a) With regard to the provisions of this Convention, the implementation of which comes under the legal jurisdiction of the federal or central legislative power, the obligations of the federal or central government shall be the same as for those Parties which are not federal States;
- (b) With regard to the provisions of the Convention, the implementation of which comes under the jurisdiction of individual constituent units such as States, counties, provinces, or cantons which are not obliged by the constitutional system of the federation to take legislative measures, the federal government shall inform, as necessary, the competent authorities of constituent units such as States, counties, provinces or cantons of the said provisions, with its recommendation for their adoption.

Article XXI.

Denunciation

1. Any Party to this Convention may denounce this Convention.
2. The denunciation shall be notified by an instrument in writing deposited with the Director-General of UNESCO.
3. The denunciation shall take effect twelve months after the receipt of the instrument of denunciation. It shall in no way affect the obligations of the Party denouncing the Convention until the date on which the withdrawal takes effect.

Article XXII.

Depositary Functions

The Director-General of UNESCO, as the depositary of this Convention, shall inform the Member States of the Organization, the States not members of the Organization referred to in Article XVII, as well as the United Nations, of the deposit of all the instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession provided for in Articles XVI, and of the denunciations provided for in Article XXI.

Article XXIII.

Amendments

1. A Party to this Convention may, by written communication addressed to the Director-General, propose amendments to this Convention. The Director-General shall circulate such communication to all Parties. If, within six months from the date of dispatch of the communication, no less than one half of the Parties reply favourably to the request, the Director-General shall present such proposal to the next session of the Global Recognition Committee for discussion and possible adoption.
2. Amendments shall be adopted by a two-thirds majority of Parties present and voting.

3. Once adopted, amendments to this Convention shall be submitted to the Parties for ratification, acceptance, approval or accession.
4. For Parties that have ratified, accepted, approved or acceded to them, amendments to this Convention shall enter into force three months after the deposit of the instruments referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article by two-thirds of the Parties. Thereafter, for each Party that ratifies, accepts, approves or accedes to an amendment, the said amendment shall enter into force three months after the date of deposit by that Party of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession.
5. A State, which becomes a Party to this Convention after the entry into force of amendments in conformity with paragraph 4 of this Article shall, failing an expression of different intention, be considered to be:
 - (a) A Party to this Convention as so amended; and,
 - (b) A Party to the unamended Convention in relation to any Party not bound by the amendments.

Article XXIV.

Registration with the United Nations

In conformity with Article 102 of the Charter of the United Nations, this Convention shall be registered with the Secretariat of the United Nations at the request of the Director-General of UNESCO.

Article XXV.

Authoritative Texts

This Convention has been drawn up in Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish, all six texts being equally authoritative.

ANNEX II

202 EX/Decision 8 (as adopted by the Executive Board at its 202nd session)

The Executive Board,

1. Recalling 37 C/Resolution 15, 197 EX/8 and 38 C/Resolution 12,
2. Having examined 202 EX/8 and its annexes,
3. Takes note with appreciation of the Director-General's progress report, accompanied by a preliminary draft of the Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications, and transmits it to the General Conference at its 39th session;
4. Recommends to the 39th session of the General Conference to invite the Director-General to continue the process of elaborating a Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications, and to consult Member States and relevant stakeholders on the preliminary draft in an inclusive manner through consultations;
5. Also recommends to the General Conference to invite the Director-General to submit to it at its 40th session the final progress report and draft text of the Global Convention on the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications, for adoption.