Practical Information

Venue

The first seminar of the ENQA Leadership programme, hosted by the Agency for Quality Assurance in Higher Education (AEQES), will take place at the Académie de la recherche et de l'enseignement supérieur \(ARES\), located at Rue Royale 180, 1000 Brussels, Belgium.

Arrival and transport

Participants are kindly requested to make their own international and local travel arrangements.

Getting to Brussels

From Brussels Airport to Central Station (Bruxelles-Central / Brussel-Centraal)

The airport train to Central Station costs €9 and takes about 18 minutes. It is accessible from the basement level of the airport.

Tickets may be purchased from the Belgian Railways machine.

From Central Station it is a 1-km (uphill) walk to the event venue. Alternatively participants may take a taxi or a bus (line 29, 63, 65 or 66) and get off at Treurenberg. From there, it is a 500-meter walk to the event venue.

From Charleroi Airport to Brussels-South railway station (Bruxelles-Midi / Brussel-Zuid)

Flibco operates a shuttle service from Charleroi Airport to Brussels Gare du Midi. Shuttle buses for the one-hour journey depart every 30 minutes, and it is recommended that tickets be bought in advance on Flibco's website: <https://www.brussels-city-shuttle.com/en#/>.

From Brussels-South railway station participants may take a metro (line 2 or 6, direction Elisabeth) to the event venue. The closest metro stop is Botanique. From there it is 260-meter walk to the event venue.

Moving around the city

Tickets for bus may be purchased from the driver for €2.50 (please have correct amount), or you may purchase your ticket from the STIB/MIVB GO machine at the train stations.

You may purchase individual tickets or reload your travel card at the GO machine.

Reloadable travel cards are only available for purchase at certain metro stations from manned kiosks.

Taxi

Taxi fares may be estimated on the Taxi Verts website.
