Arrival and transport

Participants are kindly requested to make their own international and local travel arrangements.

Getting to Riga

Riga International Airport is situated ten kilometres to the southwest of the city. Participants may take a bus, express mini bus, or taxi from the airport to the hotel. Line 22 (bus) stops at the bus stop “Autoosta” (Bus Station), which is about a nine-minute (750 meter) walk from the hotel. Please see the map below for detailed instructions on how to reach the hotel from there. Tickets cost €1,15 in advance or €2 from the driver. Tickets can be purchased at the information office at Arrivals Hall E, in retail outlets on the first or second level, or directly from ticket vending machines near the bus stops. Time tables and more information can be found on the Riga Public Transportation website.

Alternatively, participants may take a taxi. There is no flat taxi fare to or from the airport, so make sure the fares are clearly marked on the vehicle's right rear window before stepping in. Reasonable prices are around €15-€20 for the roughly 20-minute drive, depending on traffic.
